

LAW ENFORCEMENT CYBER CENTER

Your online resource for help in combating cyber threats and cyber crimes

NEW SOLUTIONS FOR TODAY'S HIGH-TECH CRIMES

The Law Enforcement Cyber Center (LECC) serves as a central online resource to meet the specific and practical needs of chiefs, investigators, line officers, digital forensic examiners, technical support staff, and other practitioners. LECC enhances the awareness, expands the education, and builds the capacity of justice and public safety professionals towards the global goal of combating high-tech crimes.

PARTNERS

Under the direction of the Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA), the National White Collar Crime Center (NW3C) works in close collaboration with the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) and the Police Executive Research Forum (PERF) to manage and support the LECC. See below to learn more about these organizations.

National White Collar Crime Center

NW3C provides a nationwide support system for law enforcement and regulatory agencies involved in the prevention, investigation, and prosecution of economic and high-tech crime. NW3C delivers training in computer forensics, cyber and financial crime investigations and intelligence analysis. NW3C also provides technical support to agencies investigating and prosecuting high-technology crimes.

International Association of Chiefs of Police

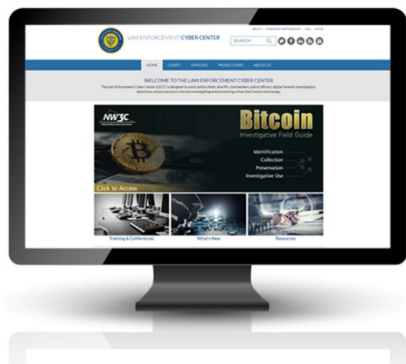

IACP is a professional association for law enforcement worldwide, representing more than 30,000 members in more than 150 countries. IACP provides members with the opportunities to connect, participate, learn, advocate, and succeed. IACP is also dedicated to advancing the law enforcement profession through advocacy, outreach, education and programs.

Police Executive Research Forum

PERF is a police research and policy organization and a provider of management services, technical assistance, and executive-level education to support law enforcement agencies. PERF helps to improve the delivery of police services through the exercise of strong national leadership; public debate of police and criminal justice issues; and research and policy development.
